Make Your Own Map

Victoria Stitch: Bad and Glittering is set in a magical world called Wiskling Wood. Here is the map of the wood you will find at the start of the story. What other books have you read with maps at the start? How does it affect your understanding of the story?

Create your own map of a magical world using the tips below.

- ✧ Scale. How big is your world? Are you showing different streets, different towns, or different countries?
- ✧ Terrain. Is your world a wood? A mountainous area? A magical land? Or a combination?
- ✧ Placenames. Invent names for the places on the map. You can add the suffix -ville to a magical word to create a town name, for example 'Tinksville', or use the suffix -ia, which is commonly used to form the names of countries, for example 'Acornia'.
